THE BULLETIN

The Bulletin of the College Art Association of America is distributed free to all members.

Membership is of three kinds:—Sustaining, Active and Associate. Those engaged in art education in college or university, or in a museum or art gallery are eligible for sustaining or for active membership. Others interested in the object of this association are eligible for sustaining or for associate membership. The annual dues of sustaining members are ten dollars; of active and of associate members, three dollars.

Members may obtain, while the supply lasts, additional copies of this Bulletin No. 4, for one dollar a copy; of previous Bulletins Nos. 2 and 3, for sixty cents a copy.

For a limited time, libraries and other institutions which become associate members for the current year may obtain the two previous Bulletins Nos. 2 and 3, together, for one dollar.

Bulletin No. 1 is out of print.

Applications for membership, requests for additional copies of the Bulletin, remittances of dues, and other correspondence should be addressed to

JOHN SHAPLEY,
SECRETARY OF THE COLLEGE ART ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA,
BROWN UNIVERSITY,
PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND.
